

Sam Fanasheh
Government Services
Executive, Qatar

Sam Fanasheh
Government Services Executive, Qatar

Dr. Sam Fanasheh is Boeing Qatar Inc General Manager and in-country BGS Programs Executive Director overseeing F15QA, Apache, and C17 platforms.

Prior to his current assignment, Sam held several aircraft production, engineering, and leadership positions in Long Beach, California, and prior to Boeing he held several positions in the air traffic control, airline strategic planning, aircraft maintenance, airport design and real time simulation (TAAM of W-DC), space shuttle post landing ND inspection, B-747 troubleshooting labs, and various aviation revenue management positions (USAir).

Sam holds a bachelor's degree in aviation maintenance management, MBA/Aviation both from Embry Riddle Aeronautical University, Daytona Beach, Florida and a doctorate degree in Organizational Leadership from Pepperdine University, Malibu, California, and published papers on aircraft seat allocation and load factor maximization, and Chief Executive Officers perception of Executive Coaching. Sam's current and previous civic and community involvements include board chair of private schools in California, graduate programs professor and Area Chair